

Randy Birchmier is the founder of Birchmier Construction, a graduate of Iowa State University with a Bachelor of Science in Civil Engineering. He has over 30 years experience in the construction and development industry. Randy is responsible for overall company management, as well as, building and maintaining client relationships.